

Our Line of Vehicles

is complete in every detail. We are now offering special bargains to run down the stock before spring

Repairing, Horse-shoeing and Rubber Tiring

done by the best mechanics.

We guarantee satisfaction. Give us a call

Kentucky Carriage Works

RICHMOND, KY

PHONE 232

C. E. Higgins, Prop

Frasa Bros

MAIN STREET

PHONE 16

FRESH

Groceries

AGENTS FOR

Boquet Flour

Lakeside Peas at 20c a Can

The Richmond Climax.

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 6 - 1934

—Write 11, 1934, now!

—Moving in the order of the day.

—Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Adams, Jr.

have moved into their home on Fourth street.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Reid have moved into the cottage on North street owned by Mr. Weaver.

—Capt. Frederick Pabst, president of the Pabst Brewing Company, died

last week at his home in Milwaukee.

—Mr. Bales Stone and family have moved into the new cottage on Fourth street recently built by Mr. Jeff Stone.

—Dr. C. J. Hahn has removed his office from the Collins building to the front room over Rice & Arnold's shoe store.

—A stone chapel will be built entirely by girls to assist in Boy's Ministry.

—Willing's line of pictures is superb. He has all kinds and all prices.

—I mean you! Please call and set to your account.

Yours respectfully,

James & Munroe.

—Colonel Will S. Hays, Kentucky's

post laureate, river pilot and veteran of the Civil War, died at his home in

St. Paul, Minn., at the age of 84.

—General James L. Thompson, of the United States Army, died at his home in

St. Paul, Minn., at the age of 84.

—A newly married couple, who returned again to their home, a pretty piece of crockery as a present, used it as a sugar bowl two weeks before they found out it was a crockery.

—Colonel Harry Gibson, one of Lexington's best known men, and a prominent breeder of thoroughbred and trotting horses, died Sunday at the home of his daughter, in St. Paul. He was 79 years old, and was an Adjutant General in the Civil War.

—Here's a problem that lays 'em in the shade. If you can find a way to seven dogs and every dog who lays 'em

and fourteen can come chasing round, then you can be a dog owner. Mr. C. H. Hahn has a dog named "Bones" who has been destroyed by rats—how many live must three dogs take before they kill eight cats?

—This is the most attractive announcement at the New Opera house. It appears tonight and will be interpreted by a capital and most acceptable of players. The play is "The Great Coselli," which is a dramatization, is one of the best and most interesting of the story have only been enhanced by being transferred to the stage.

—The

—The

—The

—The

—The

—The

—The

—The

—The

—It is like stepping into an art studio to enter Willing's store. He has the most complete line of pictures ever in the city. Prices to suit all pocket books.

—Rev. J. W. McCarver will preach at Antioch next Sunday morning and on each second Sunday throughout the year.

—Mr. E. C. Engle and family have moved into the Beattie property on Main street, recently vacated by Mr. W. M. Miller, the latter having moved into the Stone Walker house on Lancaster Avenue.

—The National reunion of Elks will be held at the Hotel House in Cincinnati, during the week of Feb. 10-15th. Preparations are already in progress for the occasion, which promises to be a big affair.

—Mr. C. H. Mangie, formerly of Still county, but for the past year resident of Madison, has purchased the Young or North farm, three miles from the city. The farm is situated on 200 acres, paying for sales $20,000.

—A New Coal Yard. Richmond is to have a new coal yard, which will be opened in February, by the J. W. Zaring Grain & Mill Co. The yard will be located at the mill. We wish these gentlemen much success in their new undertaking.

—Mr. Sterling was visited by a deer from the first Friday, there being four large buildings destroyed. The Methodist church, which was destroyed, was the loss amounted to $135,000. Two deaths occurred from falling walls.

—In our last week's issue we published an account of a fight between Sam James and Henry Collins. We stated that the fight occurred in Mr. H. G. Crenshaw's saloon, which was a mistake, as Ole Delinquent was the scene of the battle.

—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the State Bank & Trust Co., of this city, will be held on Tuesday, January 12, 1934, at the bank, for the purpose of electing directors for the ensuing year.

—R. E. TUCKER, Cashier.

—New Family. Mr. A. Barton Pate, who resigned at Lexington, Ky., has assumed his new position with the State Bank & Trust Company of Lexington, Ky.

—Countess Countess was not as well attended as usual, but business in most all lines was good. Considerable small crowd in town. The two largest parties reported 500 cattle each on the market, with prices from 3 to 35 cents per pound. The horse and mule market was also quiet, very few sales being made.

—A special from Mr. Sterling to the Lexington Times of Monday, says: "The Hon. John C. Hahn, of Madison county, State Insurance Commissioner, has been elected to the position of State Insurance Commissioner, which position he will occupy for the next four years."

—Here's a problem that lays 'em in the shade. If you can find a way to seven dogs and every dog who lays 'em and fourteen can come chasing round, then you can be a dog owner. Mr. C. H. Hahn has a dog named "Bones" who has been destroyed by rats—how many live must three dogs take before they kill eight cats?

—This is the most attractive announcement at the New Opera house. It appears tonight and will be interpreted by a capital and most acceptable of players. The play is "The Great Coselli," which is a dramatization, is one of the best and most interesting of the story have only been enhanced by being transferred to the stage.

—The

—The

—The

—The

—The

In order to close out all winter Suits and Overcoats, both men's and boys, we have made the most remarkable price reduction ever known in Central Kentucky. We need the cash now and will need the room later, so we've made prices that are bound to rush the goods out in quick time. Our loss is heavy and your gain will be equally great if you take advantage of this extraordinary sale

$18
$20
$22.50
$25

Choice for

Go through our great stock and take your choice of all the latest styles and Overcoats (suits excepted) for $15. Fine hand-made garments with all the fit, style and character of the best made to order, at less than half the tailor's price. Come and try them on

$12.50
$15

Choice for

Rich, handsome Suits and Overcoats, made in the very latest styles many of them hand-tailored, all for a song—$10.00. A rare chance for a Suit or Coat at a very low price

Young Men's Suits and Overcoats, ages 16 to 20 years, at the same startling reductions as in the men's department

—Mr. Sterling was visited by a deer from the first Friday, there being four large buildings destroyed. The Methodist church, which was destroyed, was the loss amounted to $135,000. Two deaths occurred from falling walls.

—In our last week's issue we published an account of a fight between Sam James and Henry Collins. We stated that the fight occurred in Mr. H. G. Crenshaw's saloon, which was a mistake, as Ole Delinquent was the scene of the battle.

—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the State Bank & Trust Co., of this city, will be held on Tuesday, January 12, 1934, at the bank, for the purpose of electing directors for the ensuing year.

—R. E. TUCKER, Cashier.

—New Family. Mr. A. Barton Pate, who resigned at Lexington, Ky., has assumed his new position with the State Bank & Trust Company of Lexington, Ky.

—Countess Countess was not as well attended as usual, but business in most all lines was good. Considerable small crowd in town. The two largest parties reported 500 cattle each on the market, with prices from 3 to 35 cents per pound. The horse and mule market was also quiet, very few sales being made.

—A special from Mr. Sterling to the Lexington Times of Monday, says: "The Hon. John C. Hahn, of Madison county, State Insurance Commissioner, has been elected to the position of State Insurance Commissioner, which position he will occupy for the next four years."

—Here's a problem that lays 'em in the shade. If you can find a way to seven dogs and every dog who lays 'em and fourteen can come chasing round, then you can be a dog owner. Mr. C. H. Hahn has a dog named "Bones" who has been destroyed by rats—how many live must three dogs take before they kill eight cats?

—This is the most attractive announcement at the New Opera house. It appears tonight and will be interpreted by a capital and most acceptable of players. The play is "The Great Coselli," which is a dramatization, is one of the best and most interesting of the story have only been enhanced by being transferred to the stage.

—The

—The

—The

—The

—The

—The $15

$20
$22.50
$25

Choice for

Go through our great stock and take your choice of all the latest styles and Overcoats (suits excepted) for $15. Fine hand-made garments with all the fit, style and character of the best made to order, at less than half the tailor's price. Come and try them on

$12.50
$15

Choice for

Rich, handsome Suits and Overcoats, made in the very latest styles many of them hand-tailored, all for a song—$10.00. A rare chance for a Suit or Coat at a very low price

Young Men's Suits and Overcoats, ages 16 to 20 years, at the same startling reductions as in the men's department

—Mr. Sterling was visited by a deer from the first Friday, there being four large buildings destroyed. The Methodist church, which was destroyed, was the loss amounted to $135,000. Two deaths occurred from falling walls.

—In our last week's issue we published an account of a fight between Sam James and Henry Collins. We stated that the fight occurred in Mr. H. G. Crenshaw's saloon, which was a mistake, as Ole Delinquent was the scene of the battle.

—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the State Bank & Trust Co., of this city, will be held on Tuesday, January 12, 1934, at the bank, for the purpose of electing directors for the ensuing year.

—R. E. TUCKER, Cashier.

—New Family. Mr. A. Barton Pate, who resigned at Lexington, Ky., has assumed his new position with the State Bank & Trust Company of Lexington, Ky.

—Countess Countess was not as well attended as usual, but business in most all lines was good. Considerable small crowd in town. The two largest parties reported 500 cattle each on the market, with prices from 3 to 35 cents per pound. The horse and mule market was also quiet, very few sales being made.

—A special from Mr. Sterling to the Lexington Times of Monday, says: "The Hon. John C. Hahn, of Madison county, State Insurance Commissioner, has been elected to the position of State Insurance Commissioner, which position he will occupy for the next four years."

—Here's a problem that lays 'em in the shade. If you can find a way to seven dogs and every dog who lays 'em and fourteen can come chasing round, then you can be a dog owner. Mr. C. H. Hahn has a dog named "Bones" who has been destroyed by rats—how many live must three dogs take before they kill eight cats?

—This is the most attractive announcement at the New Opera house. It appears tonight and will be interpreted by a capital and most acceptable of players. The play is "The Great Coselli," which is a dramatization, is one of the best and most interesting of the story have only been enhanced by being transferred to the stage.

—The

—The

—The

—The

—The

—The

$18 $20
$22.50
$25

Choice for

Go through our great stock and take your choice of all the latest styles and Overcoats (suits excepted) for $15. Fine hand-made garments with all the fit, style and character of the best made to order, at less than half the tailor's price. Come and try them on

$12.50
$15

Choice for

Rich, handsome Suits and Overcoats, made in the very latest styles many of them hand-tailored, all for a song—$10.00. A rare chance for a Suit or Coat at a very low price

Young Men's Suits and Overcoats, ages 16 to 20 years, at the same startling reductions as in the men's department

—Mr. Sterling was visited by a deer from the first Friday, there being four large buildings destroyed. The Methodist church, which was destroyed, was the loss amounted to $135,000. Two deaths occurred from falling walls.

—In our last week's issue we published an account of a fight between Sam James and Henry Collins. We stated that the fight occurred in Mr. H. G. Crenshaw's saloon, which was a mistake, as Ole Delinquent was the scene of the battle.

—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the State Bank & Trust Co., of this city, will be held on Tuesday, January 12, 1934, at the bank, for the purpose of electing directors for the ensuing year.

—R. E. TUCKER, Cashier.

—New Family. Mr. A. Barton Pate, who resigned at Lexington, Ky., has assumed his new position with the State Bank & Trust Company of Lexington, Ky.

—Countess Countess was not as well attended as usual, but business in most all lines was good. Considerable small crowd in town. The two largest parties reported 500 cattle each on the market, with prices from 3 to 35 cents per pound. The horse and mule market was also quiet, very few sales being made.

—A special from Mr. Sterling to the Lexington Times of Monday, says: "The Hon. John C. Hahn, of Madison county, State Insurance Commissioner, has been elected to the position of State Insurance Commissioner, which position he will occupy for the next four years."

—Here's a problem that lays 'em in the shade. If you can find a way to seven dogs and every dog who lays 'em and fourteen can come chasing round, then you can be a dog owner. Mr. C. H. Hahn has a dog named "Bones" who has been destroyed by rats—how many live must three dogs take before they kill eight cats?

—This is the most attractive announcement at the New Opera house. It appears tonight and will be interpreted by a capital and most acceptable of players. The play is "The Great Coselli," which is a dramatization, is one of the best and most interesting of the story have only been enhanced by being transferred to the stage.

—The

—The

—The

—The

—The

—The

$8
$10

Choice for

Go through our great stock and take your choice of all the latest styles and Overcoats (suits excepted) for $15. Fine hand-made garments with all the fit, style and character of the best made to order, at less than half the tailor's price. Come and try them on

$12.50
$15

Choice for

Rich, handsome Suits and Overcoats, made in the very latest styles many of them hand-tailored, all for a song—$10.00. A rare chance for a Suit or Coat at a very low price

Young Men's Suits and Overcoats, ages 16 to 20 years, at the same startling reductions as in the men's department

—Mr. Sterling was visited by a deer from the first Friday, there being four large buildings destroyed. The Methodist church, which was destroyed, was the loss amounted to $135,000. Two deaths occurred from falling walls.

—In our last week's issue we published an account of a fight between Sam James and Henry Collins. We stated that the fight occurred in Mr. H. G. Crenshaw's saloon, which was a mistake, as Ole Delinquent was the scene of the battle.

—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the State Bank & Trust Co., of this city, will be held on Tuesday, January 12, 1934, at the bank, for the purpose of electing directors for the ensuing year.

—R. E. TUCKER, Cashier.

—New Family. Mr. A. Barton Pate, who resigned at Lexington, Ky., has assumed his new position with the State Bank & Trust Company of Lexington, Ky.

—Countess Countess was not as well attended as usual, but business in most all lines was good. Considerable small crowd in town. The two largest parties reported 500 cattle each on the market, with prices from 3 to 35 cents per pound. The horse and mule market was also quiet, very few sales being made.

—A special from Mr. Sterling to the Lexington Times of Monday, says: "The Hon. John C. Hahn, of Madison county, State Insurance Commissioner, has been elected to the position of State Insurance Commissioner, which position he will occupy for the next four years."

—Here's a problem that lays 'em in the shade. If you can find a way to seven dogs and every dog who lays 'em and fourteen can come chasing round, then you can be a dog owner. Mr. C. H. Hahn has a dog named "Bones" who has been destroyed by rats—how many live must three dogs take before they kill eight cats?

—This is the most attractive announcement at the New Opera house. It appears tonight and will be interpreted by a capital and most acceptable of players. The play is "The Great Coselli," which is a dramatization, is one of the best and most interesting of the story have only been enhanced by being transferred to the stage.

—The

—The

—The

—The

—The

—The

NEW FIRM

Having purchased the grocery business of E. Deatherage & Co., we are now ready to supply the public with everything desired in the general

Grocery Line

We propose to keep the cleanest and freshest goods to be had, and maintain the splendid reputation made for this house by Mr. Deatherage. We will also carry all kinds of field seeds in season. We cordially invite the people of Richmond and Madison county to give us a liberal share of their patronage

Very Respectfully

Successors to E. Deatherage & Co.

Richmond & Madison County

Richmond & Madison County

Richmond & Madison County

Richmond & Madison County

Richmond & Madison County

Richmond & Madison County

Richmond & Madison County

Richmond & Madison County

Richmond & Madison County

Richmond & Madison County

Richmond & Madison County

